Community Service Unit Monthly Report October 2012

Community Service Unit News

During the month of October, the Community Service Unit took on many transformations. Auxiliary CSO, Rebecca Schuh and CSO, Tyler Tuttle resigned from the program. Officer Steve South also resigned from his position as Community Service Unit Manager. The CSO program is now being over seen by a CSO Advisory Committee consisting of Officer Dan Pellizzer, Officer Dan Coyhis and Officer Michelle Wiegand. Sgt. Carl Waterstreet will be assuming command of the CSO program and the Assistant Unit Manager position has been re-classified as “Community Service Officer Coordinator”, given to Officer Kourtney Krah.

A huge thank-you goes out to Officer South for starting the CSO program. Officer South spent long hard hours, day after day, starting and managing the CSO program the past few years. With out him, the CSO program would not exist.
