This Policy & Procedure consists of the following numbered sections:

- II. MISSION STATEMENT
- III. GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

IV. OATH OF OFFICE

V. LAW ENFORCEMENT CODE OF ETHICS

VI. NON-SWORN PERSONNEL CODE OF ETHICS

I. POLICY

- A. It is the policy of the Sturgeon Bay Police Department to maintain a Mission Statement, establish goals and objectives, as well as, to strive for the attainment of these goals and objectives. It is also the policy of the Department for each sworn member of the Department to take an oath of office, and for all personnel to abide by a Code of Ethics.

II. MISSION STATEMENT

- A. The mission of the Sturgeon Bay Police Department is to serve, protect, and work in partnership with the community to ensure a safe, nurturing environment.
- B. The Mission Statement shall be reviewed at an interval determined by the Chief of Police, but not less than a minimum of every five years.

III. GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

- A. The following goals and objectives of the Department shall be reviewed and updated (as needed) on an annual basis, and shall be available to all Department members
- B. Overall goals are:
  - 1. The protection of life and property.
  - 2. Crime prevention through education, detection and apprehension.
  - 3. Providing essential services to the citizens, and visitors of the City of Sturgeon Bay.
  - 4. Working with other agencies to achieve common goals.
- C. To identify criminal offenders and criminal activity, and, where appropriate, to apprehend offenders and participate in subsequent court proceedings.

This consists of identifying those thought to be guilty of having committed a criminal offense, and subsequently proceeding against them.

The investigation process typically involves the gathering of information from victims and witnesses, the collection and analysis of physical evidence, and the relating of the results of these and other inquiries to one or more individuals identified as likely to have committed the offense.

D. To aid individuals who are in danger of physical harm.

This aid extends beyond incidents in which the threatened harm is the result of a criminal attack, but also against hazards, accidents, or even discomforts of life.

E. To protect Constitutional guarantees.

An officer may enforce any Federal, State, or local statute which is valid on its face without fear or abrogating the Constitutional rights of the person violating that statute. An officer who lawfully acts within the scope of his/her authority does not deprive persons of their civil liberties.

F. To facilitate the movement of people and vehicles.

The police have assumed a major share of the responsibility for achieving and maintaining the high degree of order that is necessary to make the free movement of people and vehicles possible.

G. To assist those who cannot care for themselves.

Policing consists of providing care and assistance to those who cannot care for themselves because of their age, their state of health, the physically disabled, the mentally ill, mentally impaired, and those suffering from alcohol and drug addiction.

H. To resolve conflict.

The police contribute to the order of the community by resolving inter-group conflict with the objective of resolving clashes before they involve physical confrontation.

I. To identify problems that are potentially serious law enforcement or governmental problems.

The police identify problems that plague the community and channel complaints to the proper governmental agency. Police sort out situations that require attention and identify policies and practices of the other governmental agencies that need correction.

- J. To create and maintain a feeling of security in the community.

Police help to create an atmosphere that makes it possible for people, exercising reasonable care and precaution, to carry on their ordinary, daily activities with the expectation that they will not be endangered, interfered with, or subject to criminal attack.

- K. To promote and preserve order.

The handling of a civil disturbance is viewed as extraordinary, but is among the most firmly established responsibilities of the police.

- L. To provide other services on an emergency basis.

Saving lives and aiding the injured, locating lost persons, keeping the peace, and providing for many other miscellaneous needs are basic services provided by the Department. To satisfy these requests, the Department responds to calls for service, and renders such aid or advice as is necessitated or indicated by the situation.

2. Date of employment and compensation shall be determined based on the date of appointment or promotion as set forth in an official Department Order, and/or related labor agreements, and shall not necessarily be a function of the date the Oath of Office was administered.

V. THE LAW ENFORCEMENT CODE OF ETHICS

- A. The Law Enforcement Code of Ethics will serve as the basic standard of principle and professional behavior for sworn officers of the Sturgeon Bay Police Department.

LAW ENFORCEMENT CODE OF ETHICS

“As a law enforcement officer, my fundamental duty is to serve mankind; to safeguard lives and property, to protect the innocent against deception, the weak against oppression or intimidation, and the peaceful against violence or disorder, and to respect the constitutional rights of all men to liberty, equality and justice.

I will keep my private life unsullied as an example to all, maintain courageous calm in the face of danger, scorn or ridicule; develop self-restraint, and be constantly mindful of the welfare of others. Honest in thought and deed in both my personal and official life, I will be exemplary in obeying the laws of the land and the regulations of my department. Whatever I see or hear of a confidential nature or that is confided to me in my official capacity will be kept ever secret unless revelation is necessary in the performance of my duty.

I will never act officiously or permit personal feelings, prejudices, animosities, or friendships to influence my decisions. With no compromise for crime and with relentless prosecution of criminals,

I will enforce the law courteously and appropriately without fear or favor, malice or ill will, never employing unnecessary force or violence and never accepting gratuities.

I recognize the badge of my office as a symbol of public faith, and I accept it as a public trust to be held so long as I am true to the ethics of the police service. I will constantly strive to achieve these objectives and ideals, dedicating myself before God to my chose profession...law enforcement.”

VI. NON-SWORN PERSONNEL CODE OF ETHICS

- A. The non-sworn personnel Code of Ethics will serve as the basis standard of principle and professional behavior for non-sworn members of the Sturgeon Bay Police Department.

NON-SWORN PERSONNEL CODE OF ETHICS

“As an employee of a law enforcement agency, my fundamental obligation is to serve the citizens of the community and to uphold the ethics of my agency.

While I consider the way I choose to conduct my private affairs a personal freedom, I accept the responsibilities for my actions, as well as inactions, while on duty or off duty, when those actions bring disrepute on the public image of my employer, my fellow employees and the law enforcement profession.

I vow to perform all my duties in a professional and competent manner. I consider the abilities to be courageous in the face of danger and to exercise restraint in the use of my powers and authorities to be the ultimate public trust. I accept that I must consistently strive to achieve excellence in learning the necessary knowledge and skills associated with my duties. I will keep myself physically fit and mentally alert so that I am capable of performing my duties according to the quality expected of my position.

I vow to be fully truthful and honest in my dealings with others. I deplore lies and half-truths that mislead or do not fully inform those who must depend upon my honesty. I will obey the very laws that my agency is sworn to uphold. I will seek affirmative ways to comply with the standards of my agency and the lawful directions of my supervisors.

I vow to treat others with courtesy at all times. I consider it to be a profession weakness to allow another's behavior to dictate my response. I will not allow others' actions or failings to be my excuse for not performing my duties in a responsible and profession and expected manner.

I vow to empathize with the problems of people with whom I come into daily contact. However, I cannot allow my personal feelings, prejudices, animosities, or friendships to influence the discretionary authorities entrusted to my job. I will affirmatively seek ways to avoid conflicts and potential conflicts of interest that could compromise my official authority or public image.

I hold the authority inherent in my position to be an affirmation of the public's trust in me as a member of the law enforcement profession. I do not take this trust lightly.

As long as I remain in this position, I will dedicate myself to maintaining this trust and upholding all the ideals of this chose profession."
