This Policy & Procedure consists of the following numbered sections:

- I. POLICY
- II. DEFINITIONS
- III. COMPENSATION

IV. LEAVE PROGRAM

V. INSURANCE AND RETIREMENT

VI. WORK SCHEDULE

VII. OVERTIME

I. POLICY

- A. It is the policy of the Sturgeon Bay Police Department to provide compensation, and benefits as well as conditions of work. It is also necessary to provide adequate staffing to carry out its goals, therefore limitations on the use of leave and the procedures for application and approval are included.

II. DEFINITIONS

- A. ELIGIBLE EMPLOYEE: An employee who has worked for this agency for at least 12 months and who has worked at least 1,250 hours during the 12-month period preceding the date upon which leave is to begin.
- B. SPOUSE: A husband or wife as defined or recognized by state law for purposes of marriage, including common-law marriages where recognized by law.
- C. CHILD: This includes adopted children, foster children, step-children, legal wards and anyone for whom the employee stood in loco parentis.
- D. PARENT: This includes biological parents as well as an individual who stands or stood in loco parentis to an employee when the employee was a child.
- E. SERIOUS HEALTH CONDITION: Any illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves:
 - 1. Any period of incapacity or treatment in connection with or consequent to inpatient care in a hospital, hospice or residential medical care facility;
 - 2. Any period of incapacity requiring absence from work, school or other regular daily activities, of more than three calendar days, that also involves continuing treatment by a health-care provider;
 - 3. Continuing treatment by a health-care provider for a chronic or long-term health condition that is incurable or so serious that if not treated, would likely result in a period of incapacity of more than three calendar days; or

4. PRE-NATAL CARE

III. COMPENSATION

A. Elements of the salary program

1. Union employees' salary is set by the respective labor contracts.
2. Non-represented employee's salary is set by the Common Council according to the Administrative salary plan.

B. Entry-level salary

1. Entry-level salary for all probationary employees shall be consistent with the current labor agreements and the Administrative salary plan.

C. Salary differential within ranks:

1. Salary differential within ranks shall be consistent with the Administrative salary plan and current labor agreement(s).

D. Salary differential between ranks:

1. Salary differential between ranks shall be consistent with the Administrative salary plan and current labor agreement.

E. Special skills salary:

1. Salary levels for all special skills shall be consistent with the current labor agreements and the Administrative salary plan.

F. Use of Compensatory Time:

1. Accumulation of compensatory time is subject to Chief's discretion with a maximum cap of 48 hours.
2. Compensatory time off is treated similar to vacation time off requests and is subject to the approval of the employee's supervisor. Requests for use will be in written form. Honoring time off requests is based on the date of submission NOT by the type of time to be used such as comp. or vacation day.
3. The logging of compensatory time is voluntary and in lieu of overtime payment.
4. Compensatory time will not be anticipated. Employees requesting the use of compensatory time must have the required number of hours on the date of the request for time off.

G. Salary augmentation:

1. Salary augmentation for union employees shall be consistent with the current labor agreement.
2. Salary augmentation for non-union employees shall be consistent with the Personnel Policy and the Fair Labor Standards Act.

IV. LEAVE PROGRAM

A. Administrative leave:

1. Administrative leave for all union employees shall be consistent with current labor agreements, applicable Wisconsin State Statutes, Federal Laws, and applicable sections of the personnel policy.
2. Administrative leave for all non-union employees shall be consistent with all applicable Wisconsin State Statutes and the personnel policy.
3. Administrative leave consists of bereavement, military, maternal/paternal, and other temporary leaves of absence.
 - a) Bereavement/funeral leave: see contract/agreement. Notify supervisor of leave in writing.
 - b) Military Leave: Chapter 43, Part III of Title 38 U.S. Code and by contract/agreement.
 - (1) May use comp time, vacation, or other days off.
 - (2) Notify supervisor as soon as possible in writing. Written orders, if available, should be given to their supervisor.
 - (3) Submit a Military Leave Request to supervisor.
 - c) Maternal, paternal and family emergency leave: provided by law and by contract/agreement. Notify supervisor as soon as practical in writing as to how the leave will be used: vacation, sick, etc.

B. Family and Medical Leave Act.

1. General Provisions

- a) Leave taken under this policy does not preclude eligible personnel from taking leave provided under other local, state or federal law.

- b) Leave under FMLA is available for both eligible male and female employees.
- c) Leave taken under provisions of the FMLA is unpaid leave subject to the provisions of paragraph IV.A.7 of this policy.
- d) Leave is available to eligible employees in any of the four following instances:
 - (1) Birth of a child of the employee.
 - (2) Placement with the employee of a child for adoption or foster care.
 - (3) A serious health condition of an employee's spouse, parent or child.
 - (4) Serious health condition of the employee.
- e) Eligible employees may take up to 12 weeks of leave under this policy during any 12-month period.
- f) Husbands and wives employed by this jurisdiction may take a combined total of 12 weeks per year to care for a newborn or newly placed child. This combined leave of employed parents is limited to 12 work weeks in a 12-month period for the birth, adoption or foster care placement of their child even if they are not married. They may also take up to 12 weeks each to care for a sick child or each other.
- g) Employees may elect and this agency reserves the right to require employees to first exhaust all accrued paid leave, including compensatory time, sick or medical leave, vacation time or similar accrued time, prior to taking unpaid leave under the FMLA.

Except when the leave is for the birth, adoption or foster care of a child, this agency may not require the exhaustion of sick or medical leave, but the employee and the agency may agree to such a procedure.
- h) This agency's policy on off-duty employment shall apply to personnel on FMLA leave.
- i) During the FMLA leave period, the employee shall not leave the county of his or her residence without the prior approval of the Chief of Police except for medical treatment purposes.

2. Notice of Need for Leave

- a) An employee shall provide 30 days' advance notice if the need for leave is foreseeable and as soon as practicable if the leave is not foreseeable.
- b) The employee shall provide a medical certificate to support requested leave that is taken for a serious health condition of the employee or the employee's family member. If the leave is for the employee's own serious health, the employee shall provide medical certification to state that the employee is unable to perform the "essential functions" of the employee's job. In addition, the employee who seeks leave for a serious health condition is also required to make a reasonable effort to schedule the treatment so as to avoid disruption to the employer's operations subject to the approval of the health provider.
- c) The medical certification shall also include the treatment prescribed by the healthcare provider and whether in-patient hospitalization is required.
- d) This agency may require the employee to obtain a medical certification from a second health-care provider at the agency's expense. If the opinion of the second health care provider differs from that of the first, this agency may require a third medical opinion at its expense.
- e) The employee and representatives of this agency shall cooperate and act in good faith in selecting any third health-care provider, and both parties shall be bound by that medical decision.

3. Pay and Benefits

- a) While on FMLA leave, employees will be maintained on this agency's group health insurance under the same terms as applicable while actively employed.
 - (1) During the period of leave, employees shall be responsible for the payment of any premiums for health insurance under the same terms and conditions as when actively employed.
 - (2) Employees who fail to return to work after leave is taken will be financially liable for any premiums paid by this employer for their health insurance while on leave unless (a) the employee suffers a continuation, recurrence or onset of a serious medical condition that would entitle the employee to leave under the FMLA or (b) other circumstances exist that are beyond the employee's control.
- b) Life insurance and disability insurance premiums are the responsibility of the employee while the employee is on leave.

- c) Upon returning from FMLA leave, employees will be reinstated to their original or an equivalent position with equal rank, benefits, pay and working conditions.
 - (1) Reinstatement is conditional upon certification that the employee is physically and mentally fit to return to work.
 - (2) Return to work in other than a full-duty status may be granted in accordance with provisions and conditions of this agency's light-duty policy.

Endnotes

- (1) By law, notice regarding leave under the Family Medical Leave Act of 1993 must be included in any employee handbook, policy manual or similar document that provides written guidance to employees regarding their rights and benefits.

Employers must also post a notice in the workplace informing employees of their FMLA rights.

- (2) The Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 is applicable to law enforcement agencies whose employing jurisdictions have 50 or more "eligible" employees at the time in which an eligible employee requests leave.

The act provides leave for workers under certain conditions in addition to that normally provided by the employer.

- C. Other temporary leaves of absence: Requests for other leave is on a case by case basis. In writing, present reasons for leave to his/her supervisor. Approval may only be made by the Chief.

D. Administrative Leave

- 1. Officers may be placed on administrative leave while under administrative investigation, due to failure to meet firearms qualification or at the discretion of the Chief of Police.
- 2. Administrative Leave--Administrative Investigation Officers shall have their police powers limited and may be relieved from duty entirely or reassigned to desk duties.
- 3. Administrative Leave--Firearms

Qualification Failure to qualify after three attempts shall result in a non-disciplinary suspension of police powers. The officer shall surrender his Department issued firearms and ammunition to the Captain.

4. Return to Duty from Administrative Leave--Administrative Investigation

An Officer on administrative leave may not return to regular duty until directed by the Chief of Police. This decision may be based on one or more of the following: the recommendation of the Police Psychologist regarding the person's fitness for duty, the given circumstances, the status of the administrative review of the incident, or the meeting of firearms qualification standards.

Once the Chief has approved the officer's return to duty, a "Notification of Restoration of Police Powers" form shall be issued.

In all cases where a person has received a fatal or life-threatening injury as a result of a law enforcement action, the services of the Department Psychologist, Chaplain, and the Peer Support Team shall be made available to the involved Officer and his/her family. The Officer involved shall undergo a debriefing with members of the Peer Support Team within 24 hours of the incident. This session assists the Officer with the moral, ethical and psychological effects of the incident.

The Assistant Chief shall have the responsibility for ensuring that the debriefing session is scheduled in a timely manner, and will implement the steps necessary to ensure that all of the resources required for the session are made available.

If the Officer has been on administrative leave for 180 days or more and is cleared to return to full duty, the Chief of Police or his/her designee shall issue a "Return to Duty Clearance" form.

Upon completion, a "Notification of Restoration of Police Powers" form shall be issued and the officer's full police powers shall be restored.
